

Royal Canadian Legion Website Project Schedule

It's easy to get started and we'll support you every step of the way. A website redesign typically takes 6-8 weeks from our first meeting to launching your website into the world. Here's what the process looks like:

Task	Description	Approximate Time Commitment
Consultation	We'll meet virtually to discuss the content you have and the content you need.	1 hour
Homework	We'll ask you to provide photos, menus, calendars and other information for the new website	As long as you need
Website Development	We'll design a modern, well-organized website that is easy for members to use on all of their devices.	4 weeks
Content Writing	We'll write fresh, inviting content that's easy to read and makes members feel welcome.	4 weeks
Virtual Meetings	Every two weeks, we'll meet to report on progress, ask questions, and receive your guidance and feedback.	Four 60-minute virtual meetings over the course of the project
Review	You and your team will review the website's design and content, and make adjustments where needed.	As long as you need
Training	Our team will show you how to easily update your website.	Five 30-minute virtual training sessions
Launch	Together, we'll launch the website onto the Internet and celebrate a job well done!	30 minutes
Support	If you have a question or need help with your website, you're welcome to email us.	Unlimited
